POLs

Thanks to CHOICE Parents for coming to Presentations of Learning and supporting your children in the culmination of their hard work.

Coffeehouse Event

Feiger's LA will be reading Hero's Journey stories on Thurs 12/8 at the Esspressoria in Boulder on Pearl St. Block One from 5 - 6pm, Block Two from 6:20 - 7:15pm. See Feiger's blog for details.

Open Enrollment

Thanks to all the CHOICE parents that helped with both of our Open Enrollment events. Both were packed, successful and full of good energy!

Upcoming OE Events

Wed 1/4 from 6 - 7:30pm in Room 421—for parents to get an overall presentation about CHOICE
Thurs 1/5 from 10:30 - 12pm in Platt Library— for kids and parents to see a snapshot of CHOICE in action.

CHOICE students will be split into grade level groups for Health Classes. These start Fri 12/9 and end Fri 1/6. In each grade there will be a focus at the appropriate level on Wellness, Human Sexuality and Personal Safety. For questions contact: 6th grade-Trasky, 7th grade-Dvorak, 8th grade-Rundell. Please see Health Exclusion Form to exclude your child. This form is ONLY necessary if you wish to opt your child out of Health Class.

Reading Time!

Winter Break is a great time to catch up on your CHOICE Reading. Make sure you have plenty of good books. Students are encouraged to see their Language Arts teacher for book suggestions.

Platt's library runs the nation's largest middle school e-book program; Buy a NOOK for your kiddo and bring it to Mr. Keith to be filled with great books! Act before December 15 and it will be ready for the holidays! (NOOK Glowlights or Simple Touch only)

For Douglass Elementary's Family Fun Night on Fri Feb 24th. They need 12-14 kids to help greeting, bingo cards, cafeteria, etc. Contact allison@bhaktichai.com
